Drug Policy in Global Perspective
Amsterdam, Netherlands and Canterbury, England
May 19-June 1, 2012

Study substance abuse from the humanitarian, trans-national and public health perspectives in Amsterdam and Canterbury, England. Examine European and North American alcohol and other drug policies and assess their impact at regional, state, national, and international levels. In addition to site visits to cutting edge harm reduction programs, students will attend the 2012 Conference of the International Society for the Study of Drug Policy in Canterbury.

The program will focus on the contemporary alcohol and other drug policies, the drug war, and their effect on complex trans-national economic issues, immigration, and human trafficking.

(3 credits, HTW 400/600) Need-based grants available.
