

Showcasing excellence in prevention, treatment and policy for youth and families impacted by substance use

(Formerly the Western Canadian Youth & Family Addictions Conference)

February 29, March 1 - 2, 2012

RENAISSANCE HOTEL
VANCOUVER

REGISTER NOW
www.asap-bc.org

Featuring Keynote Speakers

Dr. Barry L. Duncan

Dr. Michael Ungar

Keith Pattinson

The conference will also include interactive and informative workshops as well as a reception and opportunities to network and exchange information.

Registration Fees

Standard Registration Fee $375
Student Registration Fee $200
One Day Registration Fee $175

Registration Fees include:
 Attendance to keynote speaker presentations, workshops, breakfast/lunch, refreshment breaks, reception (for those registered for February 29th), access to trade show, and conference materials.

Just Announced!
FREE Parent/Caregiver Workshop
Thursday, March 1st
7pm to 9pm
Renaissance Hotel Vancouver

What Kids Need to Thrive
A free workshop for parents and caregivers who want to prevent kids from developing problems with alcohol and other drugs.
 Dr. Michael Ungar
 Keith Pattinson

The conference will incorporate a knowledge exchange approach and will cover these topics:

- Health Promotion within Youth & Families
- Integrated Practice with Youth & Families with Complex Challenges (e.g. concurrent disorders)
- Youth and Alcohol
- Engagement Strategies with Youth & Families
- Practitioner Renewal

Conference Workshop Presenters

Barry Duncan	Michael Ungar	Keith Pattinson
Nancy Poole	Leanne Campbell	Natalie Clark
Harvest Moon	Ross Laird	VIHA/VSb/VCH
McCreary Centre	Call Out!	DTFP
Inner City Youth Team	Ministry of Health	CAR-BC
CMHA	Adventure Play	University of Sask.
VCH	CCSA

ONLINE REGISTRATION & INFORMATION www.asap-bc.org

For More Information: info@asap-bc.org

Insights & Innovations 2012 is a collaborative initiative with national and regional representation from government and non-government agencies across Central and Western Canada.